Ryan Clement is the former owner of The Petite Fromagerie, a small specialty cheese shop in Clinton, NY that featured a variety of local, regional, and imported cheeses. Prior to opening the shop, Ryan spent a weekend at the infamous Murray's Cheese Shop in NYC for their popular cheese boot camp. After completing the course, Ryan brought this knowledge back home and began crafting elegant but simple cheese boards in her shop. That love for entertaining continues today, when she crafts beautiful and tasty cheese plates and boards for friends and family.
